VALENTINE'S DAY EDITION

Volume 5, Number 2

What's Happening

- We have had two new beds delivered to the shelter. The beds have metal frames and one bed bug proof mattress. The beds can also be converted into bunk beds. Tyler the first guest to sleep in a new bed, gave it a big smile with a thumbs up!
- On Dec 3rd, breakfast was an extra special treat. Four ladies from the Quaker Road Methodist church prepared and served breakfast. It was a morning of great fellowship.
- Girl scouts dropped off wish list items and handmade Christmas ornaments. The ornaments completed our beautiful tree.
- St. Joseph Smith Collegiate Institute donated two truckloads of food the shelter and food pantries.

Martin Luther King Event At the Shelter
Thanks to everyone that participated!

Linda, Chris, Toby and Dani stuffing Bags of Love with cleaning supplies in the Kahler house

- We received gifts from the Chapel's Giving tree. Gifts included pajama sets, hats, gloves, scarves, toiletry sets and children's cloths and toys. Thank you to our Christmas Angels.
- "First Priority", a faith based group from Williamsville North High school, spent 3 hours sorting and dating the items. Their timing was perfect and very much appreciated.
- Please continue to pray for more volunteers to staff the shelter and also for the meal ministry. Our God is great and He knows our needs and He ALWAYS provides! AMEN!
